

Alice is a beautiful nurse who had a terrible start in life. But that has not stopped her almost reaching her goal --that of becoming a nurse. She is just months away from graduating and finally being able to get a well-paid job to help her look after her sick daughter, Chloe. Just as the future seems bright, life deals her a series of blows that threaten her future. Her desperate struggle is not helped by the attentions of Jason, a billionaire businessman. He falls in love with her and wants to help. Alice is a proud woman who has thus far achieved everything herself. She doesn't need a man steamrolling her life.
