

Who is your Coral Jean? We all have one--a person in our lives we need to fix things with, say I'm sorry to, or simply forgive. For Clara Denise Graham--that person is her daughter, Coral Jean Graham. At eighty-nine years old, Clara is nearing death. While spending her last days in a hospice care center, she mulls over her life—her regrets and the things she wishes she could change and determines that they are down to one—her daughter, Coral Jean. Torn apart by a shared tragedy, Clara seeks to make things right before her death in hopes that one day Coral Jean will forgive her and move forward in her life with love and peace in her heart instead of hate, anger, and bitterness.
