

Keeping your man at home is not Kay's problem, it's yours. She's tired of all the sanctimonious Christians out there who feel that her finding Jesus is the solution to keeping their men out of her bed. Maybe it is or maybe it isn't. She didn't sign up to be an Adulteress. It's just something that happened. It sounds way too cliché, but it is what it is. After all she's only doing what someone else did to her. Why should she be concerned about Kimberly, Teresa or Lala? Christian women quote "Be not deceived. God is not mocked. Whatsoever you sow that too shall you reap." all the time. Well, if it's all about sowing and reaping then all she knows is she's reaping the benefits of being the other woman. Or is she?
