

First Love

To Liz's father, she will always be his little girl, the brilliant pianist he had created. But Liz has chosen a career of her own - one dear to her heart, leaving her father to reluctantly accept her sudden choice. With her first trip away from home, she finds herself struggling with the secrecy of what she considers a forbidden love, while aiming to live up to her doting father's expectations. Liz's first love brings much joy, but she soon learns that sometimes love brings many other circumstances, even disappointments and danger.
