

Reflections 3: More haiku verses

In Reflections 3, RC Clermont draws these haiku verses not from the Elements, Nature, or the Seasons in the traditional way, but from modern life, how we are all living a lie. The themes follow those in Reflections 1 and 2, including: global capitalism, economic inequality, neo-liberalism, suburban greed, materialism and pretension, the English obsession with home-ownership, the pressure to conform, the importance of culture, literature and art instead of consumerism, commuting to a job one hates for poor pay, the toxicity of family life, love and friendship, the myths of sporting prowess and the golf and tennis culture of Middle England.
