

More Poetry Tea & Me! is a blend of poems inspired by moments when I found myself either daydreaming or fantasizing, and about memories of people and events from my past. Most of the poems in this book are based on things my heart either desired, hoped for, or just realized were out of my reach. You will also find that some of my poems are coming from a place inside of me that sort of explains, who I am, what I'm about, and things I believe in.
