

The Marine Art of Harley Crossley

Harley Crossley was one of Britains foremost marine artists and his work hangs aboard many prestigious cruise ships as well as in many shipping company boardrooms. In this book, he demonstrates his style of painting and takes the reader on a journey through the decades as he illustrates the finest ocean liners and cruise ships in his unique style. He covers the entire world of passenger shipping, from 1890s Atlantic liners to modern-day cruise ships and Cunards Queen Elizabeth, for which he was commissioned to paint the official ships portrait.
